

Behavioural and experimental perspectives to environmental valuation and governance

PALO workshop | 30-31 May 2018, Turku

PROGRAMME

Wednesday 30 May

Porthan hall, Maaherran makasiini (Henrikinkatu 10), University of Turku

10.00 Introduction to landscape valuation

10.00 Windmills, shield forests and the public: landscape valuation as community-building
Juha Hiedanpää, Natural Resources Institute Finland

10.20 Environmental valuation in the framework of payments for ecosystem services
Erkki Mäntymaa, Natural Resources Institute Finland

10.40 Deliberative environmental valuation
Eija Pouta, Natural Resources Institute Finland

11.00 Topical discussion

11:30 Coffee

11:45 Keynote I: Deliberative monetary valuation

Jasper Kenter, University of York (Online presentation)

12:30 Keynote II: Subliminal influence on generosity

Topi Miettinen, University of Helsinki

13:15 Lunch (M Kitchen & Café, Aboa Vetus, Itäinen Rantakatu 4–6)

14:30 Behavioral laboratory experiments

14:30 Empathy priming and asymmetric allocation decisions: an experimental design
Kaisa Herne, University of Tampere

14:50 Opinion formation in structured groups of experimental subjects
Olli Lappalainen, University of Tampere

15:10 Topical discussion

15:40 Coffee

16:00–17:30 Structured discussion: possible field experiments in PALO

19:00 Get-together reception (Natural Resources Institute Finland, Luke, Itäinen Pitkätatu 4a)

Thursday 31 May

Porthan hall, Maaherran makasiini (Henrikinkatu 10), University of Turku

10:00 Keynote III: Field experiments in environmental governance studies: a meta approach

Ulan Kasymov, Humboldt University, Berlin

10:45 Keynote IV: Participatory environmental valuation: some challenges

John O'Neill, University of Manchester

11:30– 11.45 Closing remarks

Juha Hiedanpää, Natural Resources Institute Finland

www.paloresearch.fi   @paloresearch