

Intergenerational Justice and Democracy

PALO workshop | 5-6 September 2018 | University of Tampere

The themes of the workshop concern intergenerational justice and democratic decision-making from a philosophical perspective. Keynote speakers include

Simon Caney, University of Warwick
Kai Spiekermann, London School of Economics
Erik Lagerspetz, University of Turku
Eva Erman, University of Stockholm
Michael MacKenzie, University of Pittsburgh

PALO – Participation in Long-Term Decision-Making is a multidisciplinary research project that analyzes problems of practices of long-term decision-making. With the objective to strengthen democracy, PALO develops better practices for deliberative citizen participation.

More information: www.paloresearch.fi