

Intergenerational Justice and Democracy

PALO workshop | 5-6 September 2018 | University of Tampere (Pinni B3107)

Wednesday 5 September

- 10.00 Opening
- 10.00 Simon Caney (University of Warwick)
Democratic theory, intergenerational justice and overcoming short-termism in decision-making
Discussant: Arto Laitinen (University of Tampere)
- 11.15 Coffee
- 11.45 Kai Spiekermann (London School of Economics)
Irreversible losses
Discussant: Antti Kauppinen (University of Helsinki)
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Eerik Lagerspetz (University of Turku)
The all-affected principle: A critique
Discussant: Teemu Toppinen (University of Helsinki)
- 15.15 Teea Kortetmäki (University of Tampere)
Convergent visions in a divergent world?
Long-term policy paths and pragmatism
Discussant: Jaakko Kuosmanen (Demos Helsinki)
- 16.15 Coffee
- 16.45–17.45 Simo Kyllönen (University of Helsinki)
Democratic ways of promoting intergenerational justice
Discussant: Milla Vaha (University of Turku)

Thursday 6 September

- 09.30 Eva Erman (University of Stockholm)
A function-sensitive approach to the political legitimacy of global governance
Discussant: Henri Vogt (University of Turku)
- 10.45 Coffee
- 11.15 Michael MacKenzie (University of Pittsburgh)
Beyond theories of intergenerational justice: The politics of intergenerational relations
Discussant: Maija Setälä (University of Turku)
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.45 Säde Hormio (University of Helsinki)
Advocating on behalf of future generations: Juliana v. U.S.
Discussant: Heta Heiskanen (University of Tampere)
- 14.45–15.45 Markku Oksanen (University of Eastern Finland)
Environmental human rights and long-term decision-making
Discussant: Johanna Ahola-Launonen (University of Helsinki)

More information: http://www.bit.ly/palo_workshop

www.paloresearch.fi   @paloresearch